

[FAQ]

Main system showing "No new entry will be added...the capacity" message

The main system application will give out this message when there is not enough disk space left for system log to store the database files.

To solve the problem, please change the log storage location for system log under system log setting to a different partition or disk drive.